

Word of mouth

RADIO'S out-there girl, Emily Jade O'Keeffe was enjoying the opening function of Strike Bowling Bar with two of her best girl friends, Renae King and Astra Ciobo.

You know how girls just love to admire one another's jewellery.

Well, Emily gushed over a beautiful ring she had spied on another's hand.

"Isn't that just beautiful," she said. "I could have had one like that as my sweetheart, Gerard, romantically asked if I would like a ring or would I rather put the money on a deposit for a little cottage in Camp Hill?

"I decided on the two-bedroom dwelling that is so cosy with a gorgeous garden.

"We will gradually restore it and then perhaps I will get a ring for my finger."

Well, that's the news folk. Oh, and did we hear that Sir Richard Branson was particularly taken with our Em at the Virgin Ball recently?